* Your uninvested account balances are held at the partner bank or banks shown on this page. The deposits are obligations of each partner bank and are not obligations of Brex Treasury LLC. Balances at partner banks are not covered by SIPC but are insured by the FDIC up to $250,000 per partner bank for a total of $1,750,000 across all Cash accounts. For more information please see additional disclosures on the final page of your statement.

** Uninvested cash will be allocated to either partner banks or money market funds according to the instructions you provided in the Brex dashboard. In the event of a negative cash balance in your account, funds will be withdrawn from partner banks or money market funds based on these same instructions. This sweep will occur on the next business day.

If you have elected to participate in the Brex Cash money market fund sweep, Brex Treasury will automatically invest, or "sweep," cash not immediately needed to satisfy your payment instructions to a government money market fund in accordance with your instructions. The following transactions reflect the needed activity to support money movement associated with your deposits and withdrawals and the dividends received from the invested balances. You will not receive confirmations for individual transactions. This section reflects all securities transactions in your account for the given time period (including purchases, redemptions, dividends, dividend reinvestments, and deposits). Please see the Brex Cash Program Disclosures located at www.brex.com/legal/treasury/disclosures for more information on the mechanics of the money market fund sweep.

Statement corrections. Please review your statement and promptly report any inaccuracies or discrepancies to Brex Treasury LLC (Brex Treasury) at support@brex.com or +1 (844) 228-2044. Please advise us of any material changes in your company's investment objectives or financial situation. Any oral communications should be re-confirmed in writing to protect your rights, including rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA). Please include your account number when writing to us.

SIPC coverage. Brex Treasury is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). Customers are protected up to the applicable SIPC limits (currently up to $500,000, including cash claims of up to $250,000) if Brex Treasury were to go out of business and there were customer securities or funds unaccounted for. However, SIPC coverage does not protect against a decline in the market value of securities or the failure of a money market fund. For details, including the SIPC brochure, please see www.sipc.org.

Free credit balances. You are entitled to the free credit balance in your account, subject to any pending commitments or transactions in your account. Free credit balances are not segregated and may be used by Brex Treasury in accordance with federal securities laws. In addition, if you are participating in either the Brex Cash FDIC-insured sweep or money market fund sweep, the balance in the bank deposit account or shares of the money market fund in which you have a beneficial interest may be liquidated on your order and the proceeds returned to your securities account or remitted to you.

Core account balances. Your uninvested core account balance will be swept to FDIC-insured accounts at one or more Brex partner banks. Your account balance will generally be swept to the partner bank on the business day following the date that funds are credited to your account. Once at a partner bank, the deposit is not covered by SIPC but is eligible for FDIC insurance coverage subject to the applicable coverage limit, which is currently up to $250,000 per account ownership per institution for a total of $1,750,000 across all Cash accounts. You are responsible for monitoring your total assets at each partner bank to confirm the extent of FDIC insurance available. For details, please see www.fdic.gov.

Money market fund sweep. If you have elected to place part or all of your account balance in the money market fund sweep option, your balances will be swept to an account at a money market mutual fund as described in the Brex Cash Program Disclosures located at www.brex.com/legal/treasury/disclosures. An investment in a money market mutual fund is not insured or guaranteed by Brex Treasury, any bank, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or any other government agency. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in a fund. Before investing, consider the funds' investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses.

Prospectus delivery. Contact Brex Treasury for a prospectus containing information about your fund holdings. Past performance data shown does not guarantee future results. Current performance may be higher or lower than quoted.

Sales loads and fees. Each fund reserves the right to terminate or modify its exchange privilege in the future. In connection with access to, purchase of, and/or maintenance of positions in mutual fund or other investment products or platforms, some funds, or their investment affiliates, may pay Brex Treasury sales loads and 12b-1 fees as described in the prospectus as well as program participation and maintenance fees. In addition, Brex Treasury may receive fees from banks participating in the FDIC-insured bank sweep program. Please see the Brex Cash Program Disclosures for more information. Additional information about the sources and amounts of compensation as well as other information received by Brex Treasury will be furnished to you upon written request. Upon written request, Brex Treasury will mail a financial statement, which is also available for inspection at its office.

Physical Statements. If you prefer to receive either a one-time physical statement and/or would like to opt out of electronic statements, please contact customer support at support@brex.com or +1 (844) 228-2044.

Brex Treasury. Brex Treasury carries your account and acts as your agent for trades in your account and as custodian for funds or securities you deposit with us or as a result of transactions we process for your account. Brex Treasury is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA). You may check the background of the firm on FINRA's BrokerCheck or contact FINRA at www.finra.org.

Important Information

If your Account is eligible for "pass through" deposit insurance from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC") as set forth in the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and 12 CFR § 330, pursuant to the Account Terms, you are deemed to acknowledge and agree that if the Bank becomes insolvent or enters into receivership (hereinafter a "Bank Receivership"), you will: (a) cooperate fully with the Bank and the FDIC in connection with determining the insured status of funds in each of your Account(s), and (b) provide the FDIC with the information that identifies each beneficial owner and its interest in the funds in each such Account within 24 hours of the Bank Receivership, unless it falls within one of the enumerated exceptions in 12 CFR 370.5(b). The information described in (b) must be sent to the Bank in the format specified by the FDIC. See www.fdic.gov/regulations/resources/recordkeeping/index.html for more information. Upon request, the Bank shall provide you an opportunity to validate your capability to deliver the information described in (b) in the format specified by the FDIC so that a timely calculation of deposit insurance coverage for the Account can be completed.

A hold will be placed on each of your Account(s) in the event a receiver of the Bank is appointed, so that the FDIC can conduct the deposit insurance determination. This hold will not be released until the FDIC obtains the necessary data and is able to calculate the deposit insurance coverage for each Account. Failure to provide the necessary data to the FDIC may result in: a delay in receipt of insured funds; and/or legal claims against you from the beneficial owners of the funds in the applicable Account. If such data is not provided to the FDIC in a timely manner, this may result in the applicable Account being frozen until the information is received, delaying receipt of any FDIC insurance proceeds.
